

Copy Alderley House
Feb 2.

1870

dear Marshall with the ground or a theology of Luther. Punct in

I have your note of yesterday why you are a whole week ahead of the time you reached when here. I am glad your brother likes the sample of my work which you showed him but you don't say whether he & you are disposed to tackle the huge residuum.

Let me know. but please first see Grotto who seems second for you or himself at the undertaking Center it will require lots of room to lay out the contents of the 24 portfolios. So as to make a just inspection
by the preliminary operation of bringing from ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{the} Inceptors together ⁱⁿ ~~at~~ the Inceptors whenever they are now scattered ^{well} well, all that ~~relates~~ relates to each species & group.

Have you room & leisure for the ^{disposition} ~~disposition~~ & for taking the results more or less ^{perfectly} ~~perfectly~~ perfectly.
Your brother is soon to return & you have only till October with a deal of work already in hand.

Perhaps however froth & you may manage
the storage between you, & you alone who are in plutten for work may be equal to the circum-vention of the material, & thence to decide the further question of the expediting of advising Ham to buy the whole over to India with a view to incorporation in his

THE GRANGE
ALDERLEY
WOTTON-UNDER-EDGE

the settlement of which point it would seem that the portfolios should rest in London.

All I can say is that I am ready to suck up the work as soon as I hear from you & Grotz, & to trust you out & out for the fit care & utilization of my treasures.
Keep mind about the

Wm. Thanks for your thoughtful attention
that night - W⁷⁷
Join me in kindest
regards ever yours

B H Hodgson

Copy of letter to Marshall. Feb 3.