

He did not give to me.

Mr. Gomer you well know in this has some fault. Dr. J. J. J. of New York to Calcutta, he wrote to me resigning my services formally, so that his contract of it state 6th October - The contract ~~to be~~ inserted in the Journal for a month. Early on account of papers

The papers which were required to cover the whole way with - I shall take Mr. J. J. J. & show him no favor nor mercy -

I cannot lay any hands on the amount of pay I owe him, take Sept. to Chowgata - I will remit it to Dr. J. J. J. I paid all his expenses up & will not down, so whatever Mr. J. J. J. advances must come out of his wages I deeply regret the trouble you have had about him.

I have no idea what them will be about, he will knowing of my Nepal movements as yet. When he does come we will expect to go into the jungle & I must examine the foot of the hills in December.

Campbell wrote Elliot about min before he came west here. we have no answer yet from D. or Lord D. about my leave from the Nepal Durbar. I am greatly obliged by your warm pleas & exertions. Those letters are strong hold ⁱⁿ favor of that count. Thanks too much for writing to Stearns.

Campbell is very poorly with alternate head & stomach aches. But is a great deal of his coming & his wife's run.
Otherwise his strong hearty & very & does no way a

Dyspeptic.

I send 2 cheques of 300 each as also one for 600. so you can draw the whole or half or part as much convenient to yourself to keep in the house. I have given different states so that there be no difficulty.

Very warm weather yesterday & today & this a week long.

Your ever affectionate

J. D. Hooker

Campbell says I should cut Jones a months wages.
he of formerly receives 6^l. Octob. so I owe him the 6^l. Sept. we have months advance from the Durbar. I won't pay me penury of his expenses down from insatiable to a degree at his conduct to you who are the soul of communication to my serots. even. & who from clamour & this clear fool Happan advise. The very name of down goes Mr Jones &

Whiggum may determine what he likes for his expenses, to be cut out of his wages which end Sept 6th - final & he 2-2 to him.
