Dear Robert

Let me trouble you for 2 lines directed to Cassfordbury - to tell me when you migrate to ~~North~~

It is only on the last day of my stay - prolonged to make enquiries for my son Brian as to his projected publication - that I hear he has been corresponding with you & under very reasonable bread of his drawings & specimens being unjustly dealt with, has given you power to remove them -
- this - particularly if the Bennetts' illness should terminate fatally - every body agrees to be the first & most essential step -
& if you do not yourself

Seal

~~Place~~ them & place them in safe custody. I shall have to beg your authority to this end -

For the present adieu

My aff. servts

William Wedgwood

To Mr. Galt

24th March

20. rue

I shall stop a day or two in London - passing through
- but not under 2 or 3 weeks
